The Christine Burdick Downtown Person of The Year Award

This award recognizes an individual that has made a positive and significant contribution to a program or project in Downtown; has added to the Downtown visitor experience and/or that has demonstrated strong leadership in revitalizing the Downtown area.

Lorrin Sheppard's Statement:

"This has been an extremely challenging year for everyone in the performing arts industry, and I have been fortunate to be able to lead a tremendous team of people, both inside and outside of the Straz Center. From my work as chairperson of the Performing Arts Center Consortium's Advisory Committee on Reopening to my work in developing health and safety protocols for the Straz Center, I am extremely proud of what I and my colleagues have accomplished. I feel honored and humbled that my leadership has had a positive impact on the people in my organization and in the community at large."
